

Recital Showtime!

Sunday May 20th 2:00pm at Upper Arlington High School – 1650 Ridgeview Road

Showtime is 2:00pm! The auditorium doors will open at 1:30pm for seating. Dancers must be dropped off at the band room by 1:30pm. Company dancers are to arrive at 12:30pm.

Dancers must be in their first costume, correct tights, hair in a low bun, and makeup on when dropped off at the band room (shoes, other tights and costumes in hand). At this time dancers will have their headpiece put in their hair and once inside the band room they will find the sign with their first dance song on it and have a seat. The band room is the women's dressing room during the performance. If your dancer has any costume changes please make sure the costume(s) is on a hanger with the correct shoes and tights with it in a small dance bag, all items labeled with the dancer's name. Dancers that are in the first 10 numbers to perform will wait backstage. All other dancers will be transported to the balcony and will get to watch the recital until it is their turn to dance.

K Studio staff members remain in the dressing room the entire length of the show to help dancers change costumes and headpieces. The dancers teacher or K Studio staff member will be there also to help them enter and exit and stage and travel with them from dressing room, stage, balcony, etc.. K Studio staff members will also be stationed in the balcony to help dancers go to the restroom if they need to and keep the audience of dancers quiet during the performance. No parents are allowed backstage during the performance.

The finale is the immediately after the last number of the recital. It is the time for all dancers to come back onto stage for a final bow. It is mandatory that all dancers stay for the finale. The curtain will close and then reopen and you can pick up your dancer on stage after the show. All family and friends are welcome on stage. Teachers will remain on stage for photos with dancers.

Reminders...

- There are no food and drinks allowed inside the auditorium. Refreshments will be sold during intermission, but are to be left outside of the auditorium.
- For the safety of the dancers there is no flash photography and video allowed during the performances.
